GREG JENNINGS SIGNS WITH LEGENDS TICKET SERVICE OF DELAFIELD, WI

On August 15, 2008, Wide Receiver Greg Jennings signed a one-year deal to endorse Legends Ticket Service of Delafield, Wisconsin. This ticket agency is owned and operated by Marcus Tovar of Delafield, Wisconsin. His staff includes Gary Allen and Cheryl Tracz who join his team with over 40 years combined ticket brokerage experience. Marcus and his staff specialize in finding their customers "the best price on the street" for tickets of any and all sporting and concert venues.

Greg joined their team as a spokesperson for the year. Greg feels strongly that fans should be able to buy tickets to his games, as well as other sporting venues across the country, without having to spend a lot of money. Greg feels that Legends Ticket Service is ultimately the best place to shop for sporting and concert tickets and is impressed with their level of service and commitment to getting the average fan, with an average household income, to a game they "really want to see." Greg found that with Legends Ticket Service, they truly cater to the fan and go out of their way to get the best price possible for their customers.

Additionally, Legends Ticket Service has signed on to be a major sponsor of the 2nd Annual Greg Jennings Celebrity Golf Tournament in June of 2009.

Legends Ticket Service can be found at www.legendsticketservice.com and Greg encourages all of his fans to check them out!
