

SUPER BOWL XLV CHAMPION GREG JENNINGS VISITS QUEEN OF COMEDY

ON BET'S "THE MO'NIQUE SHOW"

Atlanta, Georgia – February 28, 2011 – Super Bowl XLV champion Green Bay Packers wide receiver #85 Greg Jennings recently accepted the Cartoon Networks Hall of Game™ Awards “Sickest Showdown” award alongside teammate A.J. Hawk on behalf of the Green Bay Packers fans. Jennings now heads to Atlanta on March 1 to make his debut on The Mo’Nique Show (air date March 1, 2011 on BET). Jennings sits down with the Academy Award-winning actress to discuss the Packers thrilling Super Bowl victory as well as his own Greg Jennings Foundation which benefits underprivileged children, their families and their communities. The Mo’Nique Show airs weekdays at 11 p.m. (ET/PT) on BET and online at BET.com.

ABOUT GREG JENNINGS:

Greg Jennings is a wide receiver for the Green Bay Packers and founder of the Greg Jennings Foundation for Underprivileged Children and Families, established in 2008 to provide self help initiatives and programming to help the disadvantaged achieve personal, professional, and financial goals. Jennings was chosen for the NFL All-Rookie Team in 2006, and named a Pro Bowl receiver selection in 2010. He contributed two touchdowns to the Green Bay Packers’ Super Bowl XLV win over the Pittsburgh Steelers. Jennings is a graduate of Western Michigan University, where he became just the 11th player in NCAA Division I history to record three career 1,000-yard receiving seasons (2003-05), and enjoyed a record-breaking senior year, leading the nation with an average of 8.91 receptions per game. A native of Kalamazoo, Michigan, Jennings currently resides in his hometown, with his wife Nicole and three daughters.
